

Agreement on the Establishment of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ("ASEAN") Centre for Active Ageing and Innovation (ACAI)

The Governments of Brunei Darussalam, the Kingdom of Cambodia, the Republic of Indonesia, the Lao People's Democratic Republic, Malaysia, the Republic of the Union of Myanmar, the Republic of the Philippines, the Republic of Singapore, the Kingdom of Thailand and the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam; being members of ASEAN (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Member States" or individually as "Member State");

REALISING the growing trend towards an ageing society throughout ASEAN where Member States need to be prepared and equipped to adequately respond to this challenge;

RECOGNISING that a growing ageing population poses challenges on all levels of society in ASEAN - where the future demand for health and social care will require innovation, research and development, and multi-sectoral policies to promote healthy, active and productive ageing and support the well-being of the elderly to be able to live independently;

RECALLING the ASEAN Plus Three Statement on Active Ageing that promotes collaboration in research and development on elderly health issues and supportive environment for an inclusive society;

ACKNOWLEDGING the collective commitments of Member States on strengthening family institution for elderly care and empowering older persons as reflected respectively in the Brunei Darussalam Declaration on Strengthening Family Institution: Caring for the Eldery adopted in 2010, and the Kuala Lumpur Declaration on Ageing: Empowering Older Persons in ASEAN adopted in 2015;

EMPHASISING that the promotion of healthy, active and productive ageing in an enabling and supportive environment is key to the well-being of older persons as valuable members of the family, community and society with roles and responsibilities towards themselves, families and nations; therefore, for the purpose of this Agreement, the word "active ageing" is used to mean "healthy, active and productive ageing";
